ORDER

UPON READING the Petition presented by Markel CATCo Investment Management Ltd. (the “Company”) and the ex parte Summons filed herewith seeking the appointment of joint and several provisional liquidators;

AND UPON READING the First Affidavit of Federico Alejandro Candiolo sworn on 27 September 2021 (the “Affidavit”) and the exhibits thereto;

AND UPON HEARING Counsel for the Company;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

1. That Simon Appell of AlixPartners UK LLP of 6 New Street Square, London, EC4A 3BF, United Kingdom and John C. McKenna of Finance & Risk Services Ltd. of 502 International Centre, 26 Bermudiana Road, Hamilton, Bermuda be appointed as joint provisional liquidators of the Company (together, the “JPLs,” and each, a “JPL”);
2. That the JPLs be appointed as the duly authorised “foreign representatives,” as that term is defined in the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, of the Company and be authorised to seek relief under chapter 15 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and to take such steps arising in connection therewith as the JPLs may consider appropriate;
3. That the powers of the JPLs be limited, pursuant to section 170(3) of the Companies Act 1981, as amended (the “Companies Act”), to the following powers:

- (a) to review the financial position of the Company;
- (b) to consult with the Company in respect of and review, on an ongoing basis, all issues relating to the feasibility of the proposed restructuring of the Company by way of a scheme of arrangement in Bermuda, under section 99 of the Companies Act (the “Restructuring Proposal”), to be recommended by the directors of the Company and its advisers, including with respect to the necessary steps which need to be taken in order for the Restructuring Proposal to be successfully implemented to allow the Company to continue as a going concern;
- (c) to do all things the JPLs consider necessary to assist in the implementation of the Restructuring Proposal in consultation with the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) and under the supervision of this Honourable Court;
- (d) to monitor the continuation of the business of the Company under the control of the Board and under the supervision of this Court;
- (e) to provide a written report to this Court from time to time and as the JPLs consider appropriate or as this Court may otherwise request;
- (f) to retain and employ, in consultation with the Company, barristers, attorneys and solicitors, and such other agents and professional persons in Bermuda, the United States and elsewhere as the JPLs deem appropriate for the purpose of advising and assisting in the execution of their powers;
- (g) if deemed necessary and in the interests of the Company, to seek the assistance of this Court, as appropriate;
- (h) if deemed necessary by the JPLs, to set up, maintain and control bank accounts at any bank or financial institutions situated in Bermuda or elsewhere as appropriate and accept deposits into and pay monies into such accounts for the purpose of meeting the payment of the fees and expenses of the JPLs including all costs, charges and expenses of their attorneys and all other agents, managers, accountants and other persons that they may employ subject to the appropriate procedures being agreed with the Company and the creditors of the Company as to how such fees will be determined;

- (i) to render and pay invoices out of the assets of the Company for their own remuneration at their agreed upon rates (and this shall include all costs, charges and expenses of their attorneys, and all other agents, managers, accountants or other person that the JPLs may employ) and pay such invoices out of any retention fund created for that purpose;
  - (j) to act as the Company's agent and representative in proceedings in such other jurisdictions as the JPLs deem necessary or appropriate in furtherance and support of the Restructuring Proposal, including proceedings under Chapter 15 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, (the "Chapter 15 Cases"); to seek any relief available to a "foreign representative" under chapter 15 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, including commencing the Chapter 15 Cases, filing petitions and any other documents, motions, affidavits, or similar documents, and otherwise seeking assistance from the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, including recognition and enforcement under the provisions of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code of any order entered by this court in relation to the Restructuring Proposal; and to take such other action in the United States of America or elsewhere as deemed necessary or appropriate in furtherance and support of the Restructuring Proposal; and
  - (k) to do all things incidental to the exercise of the foregoing powers.
4. The Company shall inform the JPLs of all Board meetings and the JPLs shall be permitted to attend such meetings where the topics to be considered are relevant to the JPLs' oversight of the Company in relation to the Restructuring Proposal. In addition, the Company will provide the JPLs with updates on management meetings, following such meetings, where practical and where the matters discussed are relevant to the JPLs' oversight role.
5. The Company shall consult with the JPLs prior to:

- (a) the filing of the originating summons to commence the Restructuring Proposal, and the Company shall not make such filing without the consent of the JPLs;
  - (b) the sale or other disposition of any business, operation, subsidiary, division or other significant asset of the Company;
  - (c) the determination of the terms of any new investment in the Company;
  - (d) the incurrence of indebtedness or borrowing of money, whether pursuant to agreements with suppliers or pursuant to loan arrangements with financing institutions or other parties, and the granting of security in respect of the same, and providing guarantees of indebtedness or borrowings of affiliates; and
  - (e) any material payment or disposition of the Company's property.
6. For the avoidance of doubt, no payment or disposition of the Company's property made in the ordinary course of business shall be avoided by virtue of the provisions of section 166 of the Companies Act. No payment outside the ordinary course of business shall be made or effected without prior consultation with the JPLs and no such payment or other disposition made or effected by or with the authority of the JPLs in carrying out their duties and functions and in the exercise of their powers under this order shall be avoided by virtue of the provisions of section 166 of the Companies Act.
7. In the event that a winding-up order is made against the Company, any fees and expenses of the JPLs including all costs, charges and expenses of their attorneys and all other agents, managers, accountants and other persons that they may employ following consultation with the Company, which are payable in accordance with the terms of any orders which may be made by this Court, and which are outstanding at the date of the winding-up order, shall be treated as fees and expenses properly incurred in preserving, realising or getting in the assets of the Company for the purposes of Rule 140 of the Companies (Winding-Up) Rules 1982.
8. Any act which would be valid if carried out by the JPLs jointly, shall be valid if carried out by either of the JPLs solely.

9. Unless and until the Court so orders, there shall be no obligation to file a statement of affairs of the Company.
10. Save as are specifically set out herein:
- (a) the JPLs shall have no general or additional powers or duties with respect to the property or records of the Company;
  - (b) the Board shall continue to manage the Company's affairs in all respects and exercise the powers conferred upon it by the Company's Memorandum of Association and bye-laws, provided always that, should the JPLs consider at any time that the Board is not acting in the best interests of the Company and its creditors and other stakeholders, where applicable, the JPLs shall report same to this Court and seek such directions from this Court as the JPLs are advised are appropriate;
  - (c) the Company shall provide the JPLs with such information as the JPLs may reasonably require in order that the JPLs are able properly to discharge their functions under this Order and as officers of this Court; and
  - (d) the Petitioner's costs of this application be paid out of the assets of the Company on the indemnity basis.
